

Congratulations on ARCC's 20 years of dedicated service to the community serving the needs of victims, it is because of the strong relationship with our Police partners in investigations, gathering of forensic evidence, while being sensitive to the victim in a tragic circumstance that this service is key for our community, "

Deputy Chief Lee MacArthur Brockville Police Service